

Emotion Code

30 min or less	$30
31 min-45 min	$45
46 min-60 min	$60

The Emotion Code was created by Dr. Bradley Nelson. He realized past negative emotions can become trapped. These negative emotions are felt so intensely at the time that they literally become trapped in our body, lodged in our cells. We all have trapped emotions. Using the Emotion Code allows the release of these trapped emotions that are causing or contributing to illness, pain, disease and even the way you think or the decisions you make. These negative emotions are painlessly and immediately released through energy work and muscle testing, never to return.
